As we concluded that statement by saying that Ifmre lay may save inclined to doubt the same, that we would farrish him all the information that he would likely want upon the subject. We will proceed to give a little history of the Alliance movement in regard to this matching the county of the Alliance movement in regard to this matching the county of the Alliance movement in regard to this matching called by some of the members of the Alliance, the county of the Alliance has been dearly as the county of the Alliance and the Alliance, to be held at Paymer-ville some time in March, probably shout the idit. The object of the meeting was to nominate or take some steps in that direction, a man to make the race for the Legislature independent of any political party. He didn't have to be a bemocrat, here was it necessary that he must be a member of the Alliance, but he must be an advocate of certain principles and be subject to the vote of the people, and the subject to any one part, or party of them. About the first I mot the first motion that was considered by that body, was to ascertain whether they thought it advisable to make such a nonlination, there was Branchenjurs, the time, the First or Second Saturday in April, we have for years and subscription of the Alliance, the subject of the people of the Alliance of the people of the Alliance of the People of the Alliance of the People of the People of the People of the Alliance of the People of t This is to sertify that at a citizens' meeting at Brandenburg in which Mr. William Alben was nominated to make the race for the Legislature in Meale county. We were appointed as a committee to notify him of his nomination, and that we don't that he was nominate of to make the race as a Democrat any more than he was nominated to make it as a Repulican, and we deny that unoffied him in any such manner. We merely suggested to him that under the present circumstances we considered bin an available man to make the race because he in his because he in his because he had been a Democrat. bin an available man to make the race because he had been a Democrat.
